We're attempting to collect taxes you owe. You should know about this from our previous contacts with you.

Generally, the IRS will deal directly with you or your duly authorized representative. However, we sometimes talk with other persons if we need information that you've been unable to provide, or to verify information we've received.

We're writing to tell you we intend to contact other persons such as a neighbor, a bank, an employer, or employees. When we contact other persons, we generally need to tell them limited information, such as your name.

The law prohibits us from disclosing more information than is necessary to obtain or verify the information we're seeking. We will make contact beginning 46 days from the date of this letter, on 4/18/2025, and ending one year later, on 4/18/2026. You have a right to request a list of those contacted. You can make your request by telephone, in writing, or during a personal interview.

If you fax your request, you can use either a fax machine or an online fax service. Protect yourself when sending digital data by understanding the fax service's privacy and security policies.

The Internal Revenue Code (IRC) provides taxpayers specific rights. The Taxpayer Bill of Rights groups these rights into ten fundaments rights, see IRC Section 7803(a)(3). IRS employees are responsible for being familiar with and following these rights. For additional information about your taxpayer rights, please see the enclosed Publication 1, Your Rights as a Taxpayer, or visit IRS.gov/tbor. For a summary of this letter and additional resources visit IRS.gov/ltr3164.

If you have questions regarding this letter or want to request a list of persons we've contacted, please contact the person listed at the top of this letter. When you write, include the person to contact name and the employee ID number shown above.

Sincerely,

[redacted]
REVENUE OFFICER
