Important! You have more time to pay your taxes due to a disaster

The IRS has automatically granted you disaster relief in response to a disaster declaration that the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) issued for your area.

The due date to pay the amount you owe in the table below has been postponed until October 15, 2025. You do not need to contact us to get this extra time to pay; it is automatic. Interest and failure to pay penalties on this amount will not begin to accrue until after the postponed date.

Tax Year	Form	Amount Due	Date Due
2024	1040	$23,699.95	10/15/2025

We are required by law to send the attached notice to you (pages 3 to 7) when there is a balance owed, but due to the emerging disaster we were not able to adjust the notice in time. This page shows your accurate, postponed due date. You may disregard the due date shown on page 3. The attached notice explains payment options and your rights.

Remember to pay the amount you owe by October 15, 2025 to avoid paying failure to pay penalties and interest. If you need more information, scan the code below or visit IRS.gov/DisasterTaxRelief. For disaster questions, please call the IRS Disaster Hotline at 866-562-5227.

If you already have an installment or payment agreement in place for this tax year, then continue with that agreement.

What you need to do right now

Pay as much as you can now by visiting irs.gov/payments online or on your mobile device. It's fast, secure, and you'll receive instant confirmation of your payment. In a few easy steps, you can:

Pay directly from your bank account for free

Pay using a credit or debit card for a small fee

If you can't pay online, you can mail in a check or money order with the payment stub.

When you pay by check, you authorize us to use information from your check to make a one-time electronic fund transfer from your account or process the payment as a check transaction. When we use information from your check to make an electronic fund transfer, funds may be withdrawn from your account as soon as the same day we receive your payment, and you will not receive your check back from your financial institution.

For any amount you can't pay right now, see the following options.

For pending or approved payment arrangements, or if you are a debtor in a bankruptcy case, or if you need to contact us, please see the "IRS Help" section.

Options if you can't pay in full

online payment agreement

Consider the following options if you can't pay in full right now:

Pay over time

Visit irs.gov/opa to learn more about installment agreements, which allow you to pay your balance over time as long as you stay current with your filing obligations. If you qualify, you can also apply online to save time and money.

Settle your tax debt

If you can't pay your balance in full, an offer in compromise could allow you to settle your tax debt for less than the full amount you owe. You can use our online pre-qualifier tool at irs.gov/offers to see if you qualify and learn more about offers in compromise.

Temporarily delay collection

In cases of financial hardship, the IRS may temporarily delay collection until your situation improves. Visit irs.gov/delay to learn more.

IRS Help

For online assistance, you can visit irs.gov/help.

If you can't find what you need online, you can call the IRS at 833-678-7020.

If you have an approved payment arrangement, or have applied for one, continue making payments per that agreement. Remember that interest continues to be charged until you fully pay your balance.

If you are a debtor in a bankruptcy case, this notice is for your information only and is not intended to seek payment outside of the bankruptcy process for taxes due before you filed your petition. You will not receive another notice for the balance due while the automatic stay remains in effect. For more information about Bankruptcy visit: irs.gov/declarebankruptcy.

Taxpayer Rights and Sources for Assistance

Taxpayer Advocate Website

Taxpayer rights and sources for assistance

The Internal Revenue Code (IRC) gives taxpayers specific rights. The Taxpayer Bill of Rights groups these into 10 fundamental rights. See IRC Section 7803(a)(3). IRS employees are responsible for being familiar with and following these rights. For additional information about your taxpayer rights, please see the enclosed Publication 1, Your Rights as a Taxpayer, or visit irs.gov/taxpayer-bill-of-rights.

Taxpayer Advocate Service

The Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) is an independent organization within the IRS that helps taxpayers and protects taxpayers' rights. TAS can offer you help if your tax problem is causing a financial difficulty, you've tried but been unable to resolve your issue with the IRS, or you believe an IRS system, process, or procedure isn't working as it should. If you qualify for TAS assistance, which is always free, TAS will do everything possible to help you. To learn more, visit taxpayeradvocate.irs.gov or call 877-777-4778.

Tax professionals who are independent from the IRS may be able to help you.

Low Income Taxpayer Clinics (LITCs) can represent low-income persons before the IRS or in court. LITCs can also help persons who speak English as a second language. Any services provided by an LTC must be for free or a small fee. To find an LTC near you:

Go to taxpayeradvocate.irs.gov/litcmap;

Download IRS Publication 4134, Low Income Taxpayer Clinic List, available at irs.gov/forms; or Call the IRS toll-free at 800-829-3676 and ask for a copy of Publication 4134.

State bar associations, state or local societies of accountants or enrolled agents, or other nonprofit tax professional organizations may also be able to provide referrals.

Penalties

We are required by law to charge applicable penalties. However, in select situations, we may be able to remove or reduce penalties. Visit irs.gov/penalties to learn more.
