Consequences If You Don't Pay Immediately

- We may levy your income and bank accounts, as well as seize your property or your rights to property if you fail to comply. Property includes wages and other income, bank accounts, business assets, personal assets (including your car and home), Social Security benefits, Alaska Permanent Fund dividends or state tax refunds.
- We can file a Notice of Federal Tax Lien, notifying your creditors we have a claim (lien) against all your property.
- The U.S. Department of State may revoke your passport or decline to issue a new passport or renew an existing passport if you're certified as having a seriously delinquent tax debt totaling more than the current threshold amount (adjusted yearly). For more information, including the threshold amount, visit IRS.gov/Passports or read Publication 594, The IRS Collection Process.

Other Options

If you don't wish to pay directly online from your bank account, you may...

Pay online by card (additional fees apply)

1. Go to IRS.gov/Payments or scan the QR code on page 1
2. Select "Pay Your Taxes by Debit or Credit"
3. Select an IRS-cleared payment processor
4. Pay through the payment processor's website

Pay by check or money order

1. Make your check or money order payable to the "United States Treasury"
2. Write your taxpayer ID number XXX-XX-██████ on your payment
3. Mail your check or money order with the payment stub

Pay your balance over time

1. If you can't pay the total amount due, pay as much as you can now and visit IRS.gov/OPA to set up a payment plan
2. Alternative options for those with financial hardships, including offer in compromise and temporary delay of collection, visit IRS.gov/Payments

When you pay by check, you authorize us to use information from your check to make a one-time electronic fund transfer from your account or process the payment as a check transaction. When we use information from your check to make an electronic fund transfer, funds may be withdrawn from your account as soon as the same day we receive your payment, and you will not receive your check back from your financial institution.

Your payment must be received within 21 calendar days of the date of this notice (10 business days if the amount you owe is $100,000 or more) to avoid additional penalty and interest charges.

Notice of Intent to levy

This notice is your Notice of Intent to Levy (Internal Revenue Code Section 6331 (d)). If we don't receive the amount due within 30 days from the date of this notice, we can levy your state tax refund. We may also serve a Disqualified Employment Tax Levy or a Federal Contractor Levy, as explained in the enclosed Publication 594, IRS Collection Process. In most other situations, before we levy on your property or rights to property, we'll send you a notice that gives you the opportunity to request a Collection Due Process hearing, unless you have already received one.

If you have not paid the debt already, a federal tax lien has arisen as a claim against all your property. If you don't pay the amount due immediately or make payment arrangements, we can file a Notice of Federal Tax Lien (NFTL) publicly establishing our priority with your creditors or we may levy (subject to any applicable Collection Due Process rights). If we file the NFTL, it may be difficult to sell or borrow against your property.

If you don't agree with our intent to levy or file a NFTL, you have the right to request an appeal under the Collection Appeals Program (CAP) before collection action takes place. If you want to file an appeal, call 833-678-7020 or send us a Collection Appeals Request (Form 9423). Call 833-678-7020 if you have any questions. For more information about your appeal rights, see enclosed Publication 1660 (Collection Appeal Rights).

Note: The CAP is different from the Collection Due Process (CDP) program. CAP addresses appeals under Notification of Intent to Levy in Internal Revenue Code Section 6331(d) when a Section 6330 hearing is not offered. For additional information, visit IRS.gov/Compliance/Appeals.

Taxpayer Rights and Sources of Assistance

The Internal Revenue Code (IRC) gives taxpayers specific rights. The Taxpayer Bill of Rights groups these into 10 fundamental rights. See IRC Section 7803(a)(3). IRS employees are responsible for being familiar with and following these rights. For additional information about your taxpayer rights, please see the enclosed Publication 1, Your Rights as a Taxpayer, or visit IRS.gov/Taxpayer-Bill-Of-Rights.

The Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) is an independent organization within the IRS that helps taxpayers and protects taxpayers' rights. TAS can offer you help if your tax problem is causing a financial difficulty, you've tried but been unable to resolve your issue with the IRS, or you believe an IRS system, process, or procedure isn't working as it should. If you qualify for TAS assistance, which is always free, TAS will do everything possible to help you. To learn more, visit TaxpayerAdvocate.IRS.gov or call 877-777-4778.

Tax professionals who are independent from the IRS may be able to help you.

Low Income Taxpayer Clinics (LITCs) can represent low-income persons before the IRS or in court. LITCs can also help persons who speak English as a second language. Any services provided by an LITC must be for free or a small fee. To find an LITC near you:

- Go to TaxpayerAdvocate.IRS.gov/LITCMap;
- Download IRS Publication 4134, Low Income Taxpayer Clinic List, available at IRS.gov/Forms; or
- Call the IRS toll-free at 800-829-3676 and ask for a copy of Publication 4134.

State bar associations, state or local societies of accountants or enrolled agents, or other nonprofit tax professional organizations may also be able to provide referrals.

Penalties

We are required by law to charge applicable penalties. However, in select situations, we may be able to remove or reduce penalties. Visit IRS.gov/Penalties to learn more.

Failure to pay (Internal Revenue Code Section 6651)

We assess a penalty for each month or part of a month you don't pay the tax you owe by the due date and afterward, up to 25% of the tax shown on the return.

Note: The penalty amount in Billing Summary reflects accruals from your previous balance due notice, the amounts shown below are total Failure to Pay penalty charges.

Date to which penalty accrued	Number of months (full or partial) to which penalty applies	Unpaid tax amount	Penalty rate	Penalty amount
03/15/2026	23	$47,634.00	0.5%	$5,477.91
Total failure to pay				$5,477.91

Interest (Internal Revenue Code Section 6601)

We are required by law to charge interest when you don't pay your liability on time. Unlike penalties, we can't reduce or remove interest due to reasonable cause. Interest accumulates daily, so the longer you wait to pay, the more interest we add to your account. Visit IRS.gov/Interest for more information.

Note: The interest amount in Billing Summary reflects accruals from your previous balance due notice, the amounts shown below are total interest charges.
