Notice of intent to levy: Intent to terminate your installment agreement—continued

In addition, this notice is your notice of intent to levy. If we terminate your installment agreement and you exhaust your right to appeal the termination, then we may seek to collect the total amount of your unpaid liability, which includes any taxes, penalties, and interest, not just the unpaid installment payments.

We may levy (seize) your state income tax refund or other property or rights to property and apply the proceeds to the total amount of your unpaid liability.

What you need to do immediately

If you agree but can't pay the past due amount and you're not working with an IRS representative

- Pay the past due amount or we will terminate your installment agreement under Internal Revenue Code Section 6159(b) and after you exhaust your appeal rights the full amount you owe will be due.
- Pay online or mail a check or money order with the attached payment stub. You can pay online now at irs.gov/payments.
- When you provide a check as payment, you authorize us either to use information from your check to make a one-time electronic fund transfer from your account or to process the payment as a check transaction. When we use information from your check to make an electronic fund transfer, funds may be withdrawn from your account as soon as the same day we receive your payment, and you will not receive your check back from your financial institution.
- You will receive this notice for each tax period that you owe however, the amount due to reinstate your installment agreement must be paid only one time to prevent default.

What you need to do immediately—
continued

If you agree but can't pay the past due amount

Call 833-678-7020 to discuss the reason for default and provide us with your updated financial statement (Form 433-F). If we agree, you may have to pay an additional user fee of up to $89. If you are a low income taxpayer then the restructuring fee is $43, which may be waived or reimbursed if certain conditions apply. For more information, visit irs.gov/lowincomestatus.

If you disagree with the past due amount

Call us at 833-678-7020 to review your account with a representative. Be sure to have your account information available when you call.

Right to request an appeal

You have the right to request an appeal to the IRS Independent Office of Appeals any proposed termination or termination of your installment agreement under the Collection Appeals Program. You can call 833-678-7020 or send a Collection Appeal Request (Form 9423) to the address at the top of the notice. For more information about your appeal rights, including the time frame to request an appeal, see Publication 1660 (Collection Appeal Rights).

If we don't hear from you, we'll assume you agree with the information in this notice.

What you need to know

Notice of Intent to Levy

This notice is your Notice of Intent to Levy (Internal Revenue Code Section 6331 (d)). After we terminate your installment agreement and you've exhausted your appeal rights, we can levy (seize) property or rights to property if we have previously sent you a Collection Due Process (CDP) notice offering you a hearing with the IRS Independent Office of Appeals. If we haven't sent you a CDP notice, we're permitted to levy (seize) your state income tax refund and serve a Disqualified Employment Tax Levy or a Federal Contractor Levy, as explained in the enclosed Publication 594, IRS Collection Process. Property or rights to property include but not limited to:

- Wages, real estate commissions, and other income
- Bank accounts
- Business assets
- Personal assets (including your car and home)
- Social security benefits

Denial or revocation of United States Passport

On December 4, 2015, as part of the Fixing America's Surface Transportation (FAST) Act, Congress enacted Section 7345 of the Internal Revenue Code, which requires the Internal Revenue Service to notify the State Department of taxpayers certified as owing seriously delinquent tax debt. The FAST Act generally prohibits the State Department from issuing or renewing a passport to a taxpayer with seriously delinquent tax debt.

What you need to know — continued

Denial or revocation of United States Passport — continued

Seriously delinquent tax debt means an unpaid, legally enforceable federal tax debt of an individual totaling more than $59,000 that has been assessed and for which a Notice of Federal Tax Lien has been filed and all administrative remedies under IRC Section 6320 have lapsed or been exhausted or a levy has been issued. If you are individually liable for tax debt (including penalties and interest) totaling more than $59,000 and you do not pay the amount you owe or make alternate arrangements to pay, we may notify the State Department that your tax debt is seriously delinquent. The State Department generally will not issue or renew a passport to you after we make this notification. If you currently have a valid passport, the State Department may revoke your passport or limit your ability to travel outside the United States. Additional information on passport certification is available at irs.gov/passports.

Payment options

Pay online, by phone, or with a mobile device. Visit irs.gov/payments or the IRS2Go mobile app for all IRS payment options.

If you plan to mail a payment, consider the electronic options at irs.gov/payments first. It's free to pay from a bank account (Direct Pay) or the Electronic Federal Tax Payment System (EFTPS). You can also schedule payments and receive email notifications.

If you pay by check, money order, or cashier's check, make sure it's payable to the U.S. Treasury.

Can't pay it all now?

- Consider an offer in compromise at irs.gov/OIC
- Request a temporary collection delay at irs.gov/tempcollectiondelay

To view the amount you owe and your payment history, visit irs.gov/account.

If we don't hear from you

Because you didn't meet the terms of the agreement, we'll terminate your installment agreement 30 days from the date of this notice if you don't take appropriate action immediately. Based on the tax lien that has arisen as a claim against all of your property, we may also file a Notice of Federal Tax Lien (NFTL) on your property at any time, if we haven't already done so. You have a right to appeal any proposed filing of the NFTL under the Collection Appeals Program (CAP).

If we file the NFTL, it may be difficult to sell or borrow against your property. While NFTLs no longer appear on credit reports, they may still affect your ability to get credit if a potential creditor uses other resources, such as public records, to discover the NFTL.

In addition, as explained above, we have the right to levy (seize) your property if you don't pay your tax debt.

- For tax forms, instructions, and publications, visit irs.gov/forms-pubs or call 800-TAX-FORM (800-829-3676).
- Paying online is convenient, secure, and ensures timely receipt of your payment. To pay your taxes online or for more information, go to irs.gov/payments.
- You can contact us by mail at the address at the top of this notice. Be sure to include your taxpayer identification number, the tax year, and the form number you are writing about.
- Review the enclosed IRS Collection Process (Publication 594).
- Generally, we deal directly with taxpayers or their authorized representatives. However, occasionally we need to speak with other people, such as employees, employers, banks, or neighbors to gather or verify account information. If we contact a third party, the law prohibits us from sharing any more information than is necessary to obtain or verify what we need to know. You have the right to request a list of individuals we contact about your account.
- Keep this notice for your records.

We're required to send a copy of this notice to both you and your spouse. Each copy contains the same information about your joint account. Please note: Only pay the amount due once.

If you need assistance, please don't hesitate to contact us.

Taxpayer Advocate Service

The Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) is an independent organization within the IRS that helps taxpayers and protects taxpayers' rights. TAS can offer you help if your tax problem is causing a financial difficulty, you've tried but been unable to resolve your issue with the IRS, or you believe an IRS system, process, or procedure isn't working as it should. If you qualify for TAS assistance, which is always free, TAS will do everything possible to help you. To learn more, visit taxpayersadvocate.irs.gov or call 877-777-4778.

Low Income Taxpayer Clinics

Tax professionals who are independent from the IRS may be able to help you. Low Income Taxpayer Clinics (LITCs) can represent low-income persons before the IRS or in court. LITCs can also help persons who speak English as a second language. Any services provided by an LTC must be for free or a small fee. To find an LTC near you:

- Go to taxpayeradvocate.irs.gov/litcmap;
- Download IRS Publication 4134, Low Income Taxpayer Clinic List, available at irs.gov/forms-pubs; or
- Call the IRS toll-free at 800-829-3676 and ask for a copy of Publication 4134.

State bar associations, state or local societies of accountants or enrolled agents, or other nonprofit tax professional organizations may also be able to provide referrals.

Penalties

We are required by law to charge applicable penalties. However, in select situations, we may be able to remove or reduce penalties. Visit irs.gov/penalties to learn more.

Failure to Pay

(Internal Revenue Code Section 6651)

We assess a penalty for each month or part of a month you don't pay the tax you owe by the due date and afterward, up to 25% of the tax shown on the return.

Note: The penalty amount in Billing Summary reflects accruals from your previous balance due notice, the amounts shown below are total Failure to Pay penalty charges.

Date to which penalty accrued	Number of months (full or partial) to which the penalty applies	Unpaid tax amount	Penalty rate	Penalty amount
12/15/2022	8	48,007.00	0.5%	1,920.28
03/15/2023	3	48,007.00	0.25%	360.05
03/12/2023	3	500.00	0.25%	3.75

Interest

(Internal Revenue Code Section 6601)

We are required by law to charge interest when you don't pay your liability on time. Unlike penalties, we cannot reduce or remove interest due to reasonable cause. Interest accumulates daily, so the longer you wait to pay, the more interest we add to your account. Visit irs.gov/interest for more information.

Note: The interest amount in Billing Summary reflects accruals from your previous balance due notice, the amounts shown below are total interest charges.
